The T Hotel Won Awards by Hotels.com and HotelsCombined

(3 June, 2020 – Hong Kong) The T Hotel, a training hotel operated by students of the Hotel and Tourism Institute (HTI), was awarded “Loved By Guest Award Winner 2020” by Hotels.com. Additionally, HotelsCombined awarded The T Hotel “2019 Recognition of Excellence” with the score of 9.8 out of 10. The awards are based on ratings from international visitors who have stayed at The T Hotel.

The T Hotel is the training venue for HTI students to acquire practical work experience. Services ranging from front office operations, in-room dining, housekeeping to spa therapy are all operated by students under the supervision of experienced instructors. The T Hotel has received awards from different online hotel reservation platforms consecutively since 2013.

Generous support from our guests at The T Hotel keeps students inspired and dedicated to pursue their goals in the hospitality industry. At The T Hotel, students are given the opportunity to further enhance their understanding of the hospitality industry by applying their knowledge through serving local and overseas guests. Students are encouraged to interact with guests to develop their interpersonal skills to become strong communicators who are able to work effectively across cultures.
